

Join Us

for a brown-bag discussion on

THE ISRAELI/PALESTINIAN CONFLICT'S IMPACT ON THE ARAB AND JEWISH DIASPORAS IN LATIN AMERICA

Part of the problem or part of the solution?

EVENT DETAILS

DATE

January 29, 2013

TIME

12:30PM—2:30PM

PLACE

0142 Holzapfel

CONTACT

CIDCMinfo@umd.edu

RSVP

<http://goo.gl/bVQf2>

presented by

PROFESSOR EDWARD EDY KAUFMAN

SENIOR RESEARCHER

CIDCM & DEPARTMENT OF GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS

Following research conducted in 2011-2012 at the W. Wilson International Center for Scholars and field work in six Latin American countries, we will explore the concept of “long-distance nationalism” in protracted ethnopolitical conflicts in the homeland and the variables relevant for Arab and Jewish communities’ involvement in peace building.

Center for International Development and Conflict Management

CO-SPONSORED BY

The Joseph and Alma Gildenhorn
Institute for Israel Studies

LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES CENTER

